

Domestic Front

Summer treasure hunting at three new decor galleries

San Francisco's Tenderloin is now home to Cavalier (which opened this spring) from designer Jay Jeffers and Creative Director Michael Purdy. It's the go-to for Jeffers' own line of Golden State-made furniture and lighting, as well as Alexandra Von Furstenberg acrylics, Shizue Imai ceramics, Paul Benson metalworks and pieces found on the proprietors' world travels. 1035 Post St., S.F., 415-440-7300; cavaliergoods.com.
• Also in S.F.—inside a renovated SOMA >>

WRITTEN AND EDITED BY FLORENCE KANE

A reupholstered 1950s chair amid re-imagined vintage and new designs at Cavalier.