< Jay Jeffers

In decorating an enclosed porch just off the library, Jeffers challenged himself to create a summery, outside space with touches of indoor elegance. Atop a traditional sisal rug by A.M. Collections, he placed shapely, sensuous pieces: scroll arm chairs, ca. 1940, from Ed Hardy San Francisco; red Chinese side tables, from Mecca Gardens, Southampton, NY; a goshkin-covered side table from Bernays, NYC; and pillows by Carol Davis Design. A strong-lined custom sofa, by Jeffers Design Group, covered in Malabar's Pasha in Curreen, and painted brass floor lamps, ca. 1940, from Downtown, L.A., join the mix. Artwork, such as Bill Samson's Raven & Lotus, pops from the cedar shingle walls.

Show & Tell

For the fourth consecutive year, House & Garden presents the Hampton Designer Showhouse, bringing the best in inspiring interior decorating to Long Island's East End
